SERVICES:

I volunteer to be the senior Advisor to the Indiana and Kentucky City and Town Managers at the request of the International City/County Management Association (ICMA). In this position I provide advice to local government officials on issues facing their communities. I also offer assistance with personal and/or professional issues managers may be dealing with. As part of these duties, I am asked to attend both the Indiana and the Kentucky managers' annual conference.

I continued in another unpaid position as Director of the Indiana Municipal managers Association. Indiana now has over 100 town and city managers and my role is to assist them develop a strong professional association.

During the spring semester (08), my graduate class agreed to conduct a financial impact study for the Town of Fishers, Indiana. The report detailed the historical trend of all revenue sources with recommendations for development of new revenue opportunities. This report was circulated by the Indiana Association of Cities and Towns to many of the municipals within the State.
