Scholars in Global Citizenship Application

The Scholars in Global Citizenship Undergraduate Travel Award supports high-achieving undergraduate students studying environmental policy and management in a developing part of the world. The amount of award received depends on a variety of factors (strength of application, cost of program, financial need, and the total number of awards given), but typically ranges from $500-$2000. All students who meet the eligibility criteria (see the SPEA Abroad website) are encouraged to apply! If you have questions concerning the application process, please contact the SPEA International Office at speaintl@indiana.edu or call (812) 855-7568.

DEADLINE: Friday, February 1 at 11:59pm. Please submit all application materials to speaintl@indiana.edu in ONE email, with the subject line: Scholars in Global Citizenship Application.

Personal Statements

On a separate sheet, please provide the following two personal statements. Please do not exceed the maximum number of words requested. Be sure to include your name at the top of all pages.

Statement # 1
In 750-1000 words, please describe an environmental challenge facing the country you plan to study abroad in this summer. Does the United States (or your home country) face a similar issue? Can you identify at least one positive step the country is taking in the area of environmental policy/management? Please feel free to conduct research on your study abroad destination (including citations for any sources you utilize).

Statement # 2 (optional)
In 300 words or less, please describe any financial constraints/hardships we should take into consideration when making our award determinations. Please note: financial need is NOT a requirement, but may be taken into consideration when determining the amount of award given.
